ARTHUR CAMPBELL, et al.,

Magistrate Judge R. Steven Whalen

CYNTHIA GAUSE, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Plaintiff Arthur Campbell, a pro se prison inmate in this civil rights action, has filed a motion to expedite disposition of his case [Doc. #110]. His interest in having his case expedited is understandable, given it's long procedural history. However, in its opinion remanding this case [Doc. #101], the Sixth Circuit, noting the deficiencies of Mr. Campbell's former pro bono counsel, suggested that "circumstances may still exist that would warrant the appointment of substitute counsel to assist Campbell with filing a response to the defendants' renewed motion for summary judgment." By separate order, I am staying this case for a period of 30 days so that the Court can attempt to obtain new counsel. Accordingly, the present motion to expedite [Doc. #110] is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
